No bills were tabled for this session.

The SPEAKER (minebuilder1223) took the chair at 14 00, and read prayers.

Motion

Hinwagoon Regarding the Discussion of pinged emoji in discord.

The SPEAKER: I believe it is in the interest of members to at least have some sort of discussion, seeing as this is a motion that has been tabled specifically for this session.

BlueTheGiantNoob: May i suggest we move this motion to the next parliamentary session?

The SPEAKER: The question is that this motion be rescheduled to the next parliamentary session

Question put to the House and agreed on.

Questions without Notice

MC_Dunc: May I please ask why is this motion sent to next session.

BlueTheGiantNoob: I personally suggested moving it to the next session as it did not seem like anybody wanted the call.

MC_Dunc: Thank you mr speaker. I believe the ping emoji removal should not be a matter of discussion. The recent trend of the usage of ping emoji is somewhat banter by this community while it may be used sometime to guilt trip those who do mass pings. It is still a joke. It just shows the nature of the community whether the person who created the announcement feels guilty or not it's up to them but simply remove the emoji on such basis. I find it irrational and it can only do harm to our interesting community. Hence I do not support this motion of a ping emoji removal imperial_block: The emojis removal is something that I am partially against. Only the blob emoji can be removed. Not the other two. The processing emoji is important to say that there is something in process. the dis can be useful for signaling people.

Hinwapoon: Thank you mr speaker. The reason is propose this motion is because people in discord is excessively using the pinged emoji to express their feeling about being pinged and we need to stop this behaviour to make WH into a more friendlier community.

MC_Dunc: First, I would like to remind the member of public to please read the motion correctly. The motion does not mention other blob emoji. Only the "blob ping" emoji.

The SPEAKER: I do not believe we are debating that motion. It was rescheduled.

MC_Dunc: Mr speaker we literally went through three calls about that motion and yet you stopped now.

The SPEAKER: MC_Dunc Resume your seat. I was listening to the discussion

MC_Dunc: Excuse me mr speaker, oh wow. that's helpful

The SPEAKER: And members were not directly pointing out the fact that this is the motion we are discussing MC_Dunc resume your seat

MC_Dunc: That is not true mr speaker. Mr speaker there were explicit words about the motion. please do not shift the responsibility hinwagoon: I move that the honorable member MC_Dunc be removed from this chamber.

The SPEAKER: MC_Dunc will resume his seat

The SPEAKER: The honourable member may not move that another member be removed. That is my responsibility and my judgement. Now regarding MC_Dunc's point

MC_Dunc: Mr speaker it is your problem that you didn't see the debate, and you should not shift the responsibility of us not telling you we are debating the motion.

The SPEAKER: MC_Dunc resume your seat. I am trying to explain to the honourable member my judgement. As far as I am aware, other members were not specifically pointing out that this was the motion being discussed. I think other honourable members would agree that i wish to hear this debate. If the member MC_Dunc wishes to question my judgement, he can happily do so outside this chamber.

MC_Dunc: Mr speaker, you cannot shift the blame to us, if you weren't keeping track. I know you are having other things doing. However just to say it's us who didn't worded it so you could clearly understand is very irresponsible by shifting the blame to the members who have spoken

The SPEAKER: Last chance. I name the honourable MC_Dunc and request that he remove himself from the remainder of today's sitting

MC_Dunc: Mr speaker that is unreasonable that you are still not claiming responsibility for yourself not reading the motion instead blaming all three people who have spoken about this that they did not make it clear for your highness

The SPEAKER: The honourable member should know that if he was here on time to properly debate this motion this would not have happened

MC_Dunc: I explained, technical difficulties and yes it's my responsibility

The SPEAKER: The member shall remove himself from the chamber

MC_Dunc: This is outrageous just end parliament already

PLaNKTheNoOB: Before of all , thank you honorable mr speaker. I wanted just to say about that that in my opinion we don't need all this messing for some emojis

The SPEAKER: In that case we move to adjournment

Question put to the House and agreed on (Adjourning the house)

Parliament adjourned at 1434.
